

Professional Civil Engineer

Location: Williston, ND

Registration: PE or ability to obtain

Position Status: Full time

Function: As a Civil Engineer, you will play a key role in the design of municipal, county, and roadway projects; lead a multi-disciplinary team using your technical and management skills; utilize your technical expertise by being hands-on during the design process; direct your team by providing technical direction and expertise; use project management skills for organizing, planning, and directing work activities and budgets; foster and build client base through interpersonal relationships; contribute to business development opportunities including preparing proposals and leading client meetings; and construction management.

Additionally, knowledge of the following is preferred:

- Experience with municipal, county, and DOT facilities
- Understanding of municipal, county, and state governments
-
- Understanding of department of transportation design and construction process

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering or related field
- Licensed Professional Engineer in North Dakota or ability to obtain within six months
- Technical knowledge of engineering principles and practices
- Understanding of civil engineering software such as Microstation or AutoCAD
- Experience with project management, proposal development, and marketing
- Capability of supervising, mentoring and evaluating staff
- Exceptional communication and interpersonal skills and the ability to work in a team atmosphere is vital
- Good driving record and valid driver's license

Interstate Engineering is a multi-state, employee-owned firm providing professional engineering, surveying, planning, and GIS/GPS services. We offer competitive compensation based on qualifications and experience, plus benefits including: vacation, sick leave, group health, disability, dental, vision, term life, retirement, 401(k) plan, and flexible spending account Interstate Engineering is owned under an Employee Stock Ownership Plan, which rewards eligible employees for long and loyal service by providing them with retirement benefits.