

Careers

Staff Engineer

Location: Sidney, MT or Williston, ND Registration: EI or ability to obtain Position Status: Full time

Function: As a Staff Civil Engineer, you will provide support to project management and design engineers. You will guide and track projects in the design phase; grow your technical skills by achieving team goals in conjunction with all team members and the direction of our highly skilled senior engineers; provide project specific design services such as, quantity estimates, preparation of drawings and calculations, and develop design solutions; engage in strengthening our relationship with our clients by maintaining engineering standards, best practices, and procedures; contribute to the firm through promotional and strategic efforts of the organization; perform construction observation and management; and collect data acquisition for design.

Additionally, the following is preferred:

- Understanding of design and construction engineering
- Engineering internship experience

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor Degree in Civil Engineering or related field
- Technical knowledge of engineering principles and practices
- Experience or knowledge of AutoCAD
- Willingness to take direction
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills
- Communication and interpersonal skills and the ability to work in a team atmosphere is vital
- Good driving record and valid driver's license
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills

About Interstate Engineering:

Interstate Engineering is a multi-state, employee-owned firm providing professional engineering, surveying, planning, and GIS/GPS services. We offer competitive compensation based on qualifications and experience. Benefits include vacation, sick leave, group health, disability, dental, vision, term life, retirement, 401(k) plan, and flexible spending account. Interstate Engineering is owned under an Employee Stock Ownership Plan, which rewards eligible employees for long and loyal service by providing them with retirement benefits.